

Where a Little Difference Makes a Lot of Difference

It's in the drug business. Where a little difference in the quality of medicine makes a very great difference in the results obtained. You can't be too particular with your medicines. That is our policy and you can't get any but the particular kind here.

Stoke & Feicht Drug Company

A Little of Everything.

The fall election is not far distant. John M. Hays' pension has been increased to $15 per month. The pheasant and squirrel hunting season opens on Friday of this week, October 15.

Lawrence J. McEntire and son, Harry L. McEntire, were at Youngstown, Ohio, several days the past week. Themes for Sunday at the Methodist church: Morning, "An Old Picture of Modern Life." Evening, "Aroused from Nestling."

Miss Caroline Lewis is the soloist with Victor and his Venetian Band. Hear her at Assembly Hall on the evening of October 27th.

The Jefferson & Clearfield Coal & Iron Co. pay at this place last Saturday was a large pay, most all the employes being paid for full time.

The Princess Helena Society of this place was in Punxsutawney yesterday participating in the Columbus Day celebration at that place.

Victor and his Venetian Band at Assembly Hall Wednesday evening, October 27. This is the first number on the High School lecture course.

Last Friday there was a change of 45 degrees in the condition of the weather. At noon it was 45 degrees warmer than it was in the morning.

The Ladies Work Society of the Presbyterian church will hold its regular monthly meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. David Motherwell.

Lawyer Will C. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith, of this place, who was at Birmingham, Alabama, a couple of years, is now located in Atlanta, Georgia.

Miss Lois Robinson entertained fourteen members of the Fancy Work Society at her home on Main street last Wednesday afternoon. A fine luncheon was served.

A. J. Shurtle, one of the state workers of the Christian Endeavor Society will make an address in the Presbyterian church on Friday evening, October 22.

Rev. J. E. Kirkwood, missionary for the American Sunday School Union, is holding special meetings this week in the Schlemmer school house in Henderson township.

Office of the P. R. R. telegraph operators at Brookville was moved on Monday of this week to Rose Siding, a mile west of Brookville, where the Franklin and Clearfield connects with the Pennsylvania railroad.

Council No. 935, Knights of Columbus of Reynoldsville, will rent the second story of Christ Montie's new brick building near THE STAR office. It will be planned just to suit the Council for lodge and social rooms.

Editors of the Brookville, Reynoldsville, DuBois and Clearfield papers have been invited to attend the big banquet at Franklin when passenger service is inaugurated on the Jamestown, Franklin & Clearfield railroad.

The entertainment given in Centennial hall last Saturday evening by Prof. Maurey, magician and ventriloquist, under auspices of the W. C. T. U., was a good entertainment but was not liberally patronized.

DEATH OF MRS. JOHN SPENCER.

Aged Lady Died in Adrian Hospital Last Thursday—Burial in Syphrit Cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Spencer, wife of John Spencer, of Winslow township, died in the Adrian Hospital in Punxsutawney on Thursday, October 7, 1909, after having been operated on for rupture of the bowels. Mrs. Spencer was 81 years and 15 days old. The body was brought to home of a son, B. Z. Spencer, on Thursday and funeral service was held in the Syphrit M. E. church Sunday, conducted by Rev. Frampton, of Sykesville. Interment was made in the Syphrit cemetery.

Mrs. Spencer was a faithful and loving wife, kind and loving mother and a good neighbor at all times. She will be missed in the community as she was always ready to give a helping hand when anybody was in need.

Deceased is survived by her husband, who is seriously ill, and four sons and four daughters, as follows: B. Z. Spencer, of Winslow township, J. W. Spencer, of DuBois, E. T. Spencer, of Dents Run, W. H. Spencer, of San Francisco, Cal., Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, of Reynoldsville, Mrs. Mary K. Cochran, of DuBois, Mrs. Margaret J. Smith, of Corning, N. Y., Mrs. Ella Miles, of East Brady. She is also survived by one brother, Samuel Bence, of Marion Centre, Pa.

Officers Installed.

District Deputy Grandmaster Octavius Easles of Lindsey, installed the following officers in I. O. O. F. Lodge No. 824 in Reynoldsville: N. G., John Reddecliff. V. G., Ernest E. Snyder. Secretary, M. E. Weed. Treasurer, Ernest C. Davis. Warden, Albert H. Neale. Conductor, Edward Blaney. I. G., John R. Sowers. O. G., R. W. Miller. R. S. N. G., John W. Gibson. L. S. N. G., Wm. H. Trudgen. R. S. V. G., L. M. Alderton. L. S. V. G., A. C. Murray. R. S. S., Thomas Justham. L. S. S., John Benson. Luncheon was served after the installation.

School Entertainment Postponed.

The geographical and historical lecture which was announced for Tuesday, October 12th, has been postponed to Friday, October 15th. The postponement is due to a breakdown in the electric light line. The following named pupils will contribute to the lecture: Hazel McCreight, Sadie Owens, Dorothy Elliott, Stella Fisher, Ronald McDonald, Edith Katzen, John Hughes, Grace Stoke, Ronald Lewis, Gertrude Stoke, Stephen Barrett, Violet Heffner, James Heckman, Aldine Reed, Helen Meek, Jane Smith, Ruth Johnston, Gertrude Hammond. Admission, ten cents.

Have You Responded?

A number of our subscribers have responded to our request for all who are in arrears for subscription to THE STAR to please make payment of same, but there are a number yet whom we have not heard from. Have you responded to our request?

Hunters should not forget that the rabbit hunting season does not open until November 1st. We have a game warden in this place who will keep his eyes open for game law violators, and he may meet you at any turn and search your game bag.

An advertisement is to a merchant very much what sowing seed is to a farmer. It may take a little time for the results to become apparent, but they are sure to come. The wise farmer is not niggardly with his seed, nor the wise merchant with his advertisement.

Luther M. Weitzel, manager of the Ridge Supply Company stores at Iselin and Reed, Indiana Co., at one time a resident of Reynoldsville, will be married at 8:00 p. m. to-morrow, October 14, to Miss Lella Wilt at home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philetus Wilt, in York, Pa.

The new school building in West Reynoldsville was ready to open school in three rooms of the building on Monday morning of this week. Pupils of rooms 2, 3 and 4 are now attending school there. The primary room is not ready yet and the primary pupils are attending school in the town hall.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Weed, of Reynoldsville, took a run up to DuBois Saturday morning with their Ford car. Mr. Weed is quite certain that every person who can afford a Ford should have one. He is a man of considerable weight in the community, yet the Ford has never balked with him and he has travelled over the hilliest roads of this hilly country.—DuBois Courier.

The following base ball enthusiasts of Reynoldsville were in Pittsburgh last week to see the championship games between the "Pirates" of Pittsburgh and "Tigers" of Detroit: J. O. Johns, Frank Bohren, Richard Reynolds, Edward Burns, Jr., John Foust, Ed Wildauer, J. M. Dalley, George Geisler, Thomas O'Hare, A. M. Smith, W. H. Bell, I. R. Klock, John O'Hare, Frank P. Alexander.

A KANE LODGE HONORED.

James E. Mitchell Appointed District Deputy of the Grand Lodge.

James E. Mitchell, one of our most prominent business men, and a member of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, No. 329, has been recognized by the Grand Lodge of Elks as a man well up in Elksdom and worthy of a high office, consequently he has been appointed District Deputy to North-western Pennsylvania. The jurisdiction over which he will preside include the following towns: Erie, New Castle, Sharon, Franklin, Greenville, Butler, Kittanning, Tyrone, Meadville, Warren, Titusville, Rochester, Punxsutawney, Kane, Beaver Falls, Oil City, DuBois, St. Marys, Reynoldsville, Clearfield, Johnstown, Corry, Ridgeway, Indiana, Bradford, and Phillipsburg.

Mr. Mitchell has been a faithful Elk for a number of years and was one of the principal organizers of the Reynoldsville, Pa., lodge, and went through all the chairs, his last one being the station of Exalted Ruler and after filling that office with great credit to himself and lodge he was sent to Cincinnati as a delegate to the Grand Lodge which convened in that city in July, 1904. Shortly after he moved to Kane and on his first visit to this lodge he was recognized as one who would make an efficient officer and was appointed Esquire, which office he filled for two years.

In his appointment the Kane Lodge of Elks naturally feel honored as it is an office which is sought by a great many members throughout the district, and to show its appreciation they will tender Mr. Mitchell a reception on their next regular meeting night, Thursday, October 21st.—Kane Republican.

I. O. O. F. Encampment Officers

Last Thursday evening P. B. Cowan, District Deputy Chief Patriarch, installed the following officers in Reynoldsville Encampment No. 292, I. O. O. F.: Chief Patriarch, W. B. Stauffer; High Priest, P. F. Skinner; Senior Warden, Ernest E. Snyder; Junior Warden, W. A. Polm; Treasurer, H. W. Herpel.

Will Be Installed To-Morrow.

Rev. Harvey Graeme Furbay, of New York City, at one time pastor of the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church, who has been doing mission work in New York several years, has accepted a call to become pastor of the First Union Presbyterian church on corner of Eighty-sixth street and Lexington Avenue, New York. He will be installed to-morrow, October 14.

Hobbling on Crutches.

Almost a year ago George Hughes, of this place, injured his right knee by falling when stepping off a passenger train at Punxsutawney. He suffered some from the injury at the time, but did not give it any special attention. Recently it began giving him trouble. He now has the second plaster of paris cast on his knee and has to use crutches to get around.

Big Potatoes.

Two weeks ago we stated that W. P. Deemer had raised a potato on his farm that was 8 1/2 inches long and weighed one pound and ten ounces.

Last Saturday John R. Hillis brought in a potato that was 9 inches long and weighed two pound and one ounce. The same day J. A. Lindy, another Winslow township farmer, brought in a potato that was 9 1/2 inches long and weighed two pounds and two ounces.

Will Attend College.

Charles C. Mohney, who was appointed at the recent Erie Annual M. E. conference as pastor of the Steam-burg charge, Meadville district, visited his parents in this place over Sunday and preached a very good sermon in the M. E. church Sunday evening. Mr. Mohney had been on his charge two Sundays and came to DuBois last week to pack and move his household goods. He has taken up a four year course in Allegheny College, Meadville, and expects to fill his appointment as pastor and do his college work at the same time.

High School Defeated.

The Reynoldsville High School foot ball team was defeated by the "Tiger" team of Punxsutawney at the latter place last Saturday afternoon. Score 5-0. The first three minutes of the first half of the game before our boys had gotten into the game in earnest the "Tigers" made a touchdown giving them five scores, but after that there was no more scoring on either side, although the "High" boys had two or three good chances to score but "fell down." It was a warmly contested game. The line-up for the Reynoldsville team was as follows: Nathan Edelbute right end, Leo Nolan right tackle, Rogers Bolsinger right guard, Frank Burns center, William Bliss left guard, Roland Sykes left tackle, Dominic Nolan left end, Hamlin Pashlethwait quarter back, Peter London full back, Milo Coleman half back, Howard Eddy half back.

You get just a little bit more for your money when you buy a Walk-Over $4.00 shoe at Adam's.

SESSION OF TOWN COUNCIL.

A Number of Sidewalk Notices Ordered Presented—Five Paving Bonds Redeemed.

Regular monthly meeting of town council was held in Secretary Flynn's office Tuesday evening, October 5. Following members present: J. V. Young, Jacob Deible, August Baldauf, F. S. Hoffman, Dr. J. C. King, D. R. Cochran.

Ex-Tax Collector Wm. Copping reported following taxes collected during September, $28.43, 1907 tax; $62.21, 1908 tax.

Tax Collector S. J. Burgoon reported having collected $116 56 of 1909 tax in September.

Orders were drawn to redeem five Main street paving bonds held by First National bank.

Orders were drawn to redeem two old borough bonds held by John M. Read Lodge, F. & A. M.

Council made a reduction of $100.00 from the Reynoldsville Water Company bill for rent of fire plugs for year ending October 1, 1909. This reduction was made on account of the shortage of water during the past year, which cost the borough $100.00.

Street committee reported about fifteen sidewalks in bad condition and the names of the owners of the properties were handed to Burgess J. D. Williams with instruction to proceed to have the walks rebuilt at once.

Current bills for the month were ordered paid.

Seven propositions for municipal lots were submitted to council by seven different property owners. They were placed on file and action deferred.

List of Jurors.

Following is a list of jurors from this section of the county who have been drawn for the regular term of court beginning November 8, 1909:

GRAND JURORS.

Reynoldsville—Hugh Carberry.

Sykesville—J. A. Deemer.

PETIT JURORS.

Reynoldsville—F. W. Campbell, J. K. Johnston, Wm. Copping, S. J. Burgoon, M. G. Swartz.

Winslow township—D. H. Hollenbaugh, Wm. Charlton, Benjamin Hocking.

Washington township—Edward Stewart, W. M. Schuckers, John Warnick, J. F. Dougherty.

Henderson township—Thomas Smith, McCalmont township—Leon Fusbarg, George Miller, Frank Shaffer.

TRAVERSE JURORS—NOV. 22.

Reynoldsville—Wm. H. Trudgen, Wm. Carr.

West Reynoldsville—W. P. Woodring.

Winslow township, James N. Lusk, G. W. Johnston, Sr., James McKillip.

Washington township—Frank Travis, McCalmont township—Phillip A. Pifer, Robert Perry.

Sykesville—Thomas White.

School Notes.

Contributions to the Alumni Physical Laboratory Fund have been received from Mrs. J. D. Patterson and Miss Helena Black, '03.

Rooms 2, 7, 12 and 13 were without any case of tardiness last week.

The Winslow township teachers met in Room 15 on Friday evening and were addressed by Supt. Jones and Prof. Rife.

Silas Katzen is home again and will soon take his place in school.

The schools were photographed on Monday.

Inspection of books was held last week. The teachers were able to render a good report. Only five instances of unnecessary damage were found.

Still Working on Schedules.

In speaking of the opening of the Franklin & Clearfield railroad for passenger service, the Franklin Evening News of Monday says: "General Charles Miller said to-day that there was nothing definite relative to the formal opening of the new railroad. The various railroads are still at work revising their schedules and will soon have them completed."

Pedigreed Horse for Sale.

A fine pedigreed National French Draft horse, eight years old, will be put up at public sale at E. C. Burns' livery in Reynoldsville, Saturday, October 23, 1909, at 2:00 o'clock. The horse can now be seen and examined at the farm of the undersigned in Washington township, R. F. D. 1, Reynoldsville, Pa. W. H. SCHUCKERS.

Henninger-Montie.

Leonard C. Henninger and Miss Lena Montie were united in marriage Saturday evening at home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Christ Montie. Rev. Charles E. Rudy, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church, performed the ceremony.

Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. says Hyomei is so pleasant to use. Just breathe it in and cure catarrh by killing the germs. Outfit including inhaler only $1.00. Money back if it does not cure.

Boys' high cut shoes, strong and durable. Price $2.50 and $3.00. Adam's.

THE PEOPLE WHO ARE PASSING TO AND FRO.

E. D. Davis was at Waterson this week.

Miss Ella Seeley went to Pittsburgh yesterday.

D. W. Atwater was in Franklin the past week.

Miss Erma Robinson visited in DuBois this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hall spent Sunday in Brookville.

Mrs. W. B. Scott, of Philadelphia, visited in town last week.

Dr. B. E. Hoover visited his brother in Gaskill township Sunday.

Glenn A. Milliren, of Kane, was in town on business last week.

Mrs. S. T. Reynolds goes to Clarion county to-day to visit relatives.

E. P. Johnston, of Corsica, visited his parents in this place this week.

Mrs. L. J. McEntire went to Chicago, Ill., last week to visit a brother.

Miss Olive Reynolds returned last week from a two weeks visit in Kane.

Mrs. David Syphrit and Mrs. Noah Syphrit were in Pittsburgh last week.

Mrs. Benjamin Haugh is visiting Mrs. S. Hunter Smitton in Pittsburgh.

Mr. Fred Johnston moved from Reynoldsville to New Bethlehem this week.

Mrs. Ruth Clark is visiting her son, Charles B. Clark, in DuBois a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Alexander spent several days in Pittsburgh last week.

Mrs. Harry Wolf, of Knoxdale, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. A. Armstrong.

Miss Levina Roller returned home Friday after spending three months in Warren.

Dr. A. J. Meek visited his parents at Marlanna, Washington county, Pa., last week.

Mrs. Joseph Perry, of Wilcox, is the guest of Mrs. E. H. Eick in West Reynoldsville.

Mrs. Perry Yeany and Mrs. David Sowers visited their sons in Erie the past week.

Charles Adams and wife, of East Brady, spent Sunday with James A. Armagot and family.

Misses Sara and Wilda Williams, Virgie Evans and Coral Reynolds spent Sunday in Brookville.

Miss Julia Boyle, of Mont Alto, Pa., was the guest of Misses Helena and Rose Black over Sunday.

Miss Emily Mellinger, of Los Angeles, Cal., is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Ira S. Smith, on Grant street.

John Trudgen, Jr., an engineer on the P. R. R., is moving from Reynoldsville to East Brady this week.

J. W. Dempsey left here Friday for Watsontown, Cal., to spend the winter with his son, G. W. Dempsey.

Mrs. J. O. Johns was called to Brookville Saturday to attend the funeral of her cousin, Mrs. Ben F. Taylor.

Miss Blanch Fleming, of Los Angeles, Cal., is visiting at home of her cousin, A. H. Fleming, on Grant street.

Walter R. Reed, wife and daughter left here Thursday afternoon for Ashton, Mo., to visit Mr. Reed's father.

J. M. Brislin, of Pittsburgh, visited his mother, Mrs. Jane Brislin, in West Reynoldsville the latter part of last week.

Miss Julia Kirk, teacher in Wilkinsburg public schools, spent Saturday and Sunday at home of her parents in this place.

Milton Stratton, of Strattonville, visited his brother-in-law, Robert S. Williams, in West Reynoldsville this week.

Rev. Singleton Neisser, of Westover, Pa., was the guest of Dr. A. J. Meek at the Baptist parsonage in this place Monday.

Frank Williams and wife, of Pittsburgh, were visitors at home of John Newton Small in West Reynoldsville last week.

Mrs. Samuel Miles, of Albion, Pa., visited at home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Elizabeth Miles, in this place the past week.

W. Harry Moore, groceryman, was in Pittsburgh the latter part of last week buying new goods for his new grocery store.

Miss Isabel Arnold, who spent several months at home of her sister, Mrs. W. B. Alexander, returned to New York City last week.

George Charlton and wife, of Pittston, Pa., former residents of Rathmel, are visiting in that place and in Reynoldsville.

Mrs. Robert Skipp, of Pittsburgh, visited her brother and sister, Charles Franks and Mrs. J. W. Gibson, in this place last week.

Fred K. Alexander, cashier of the Peoples National bank, went to Pittsburgh last evening to see the ball game to-day between the "Pirates" and "Tigers."

Benjamin Hocking, who has been an esteemed citizen of Rathmel for a number of years, is moving to Reynoldsville this week.

Mrs. Leonard Reitz, of Brookville, and Mrs. J. F. Potts, of Portsmouth, Ohio, were guests of Mrs. W. P. Woodring several days the past week.

Miss Elsie Ross, missionary to India, went to Wilmington, Del., Monday night to attend a branch meeting of the M. E. Foreign Missionary Society.

Mrs. George G. Williams, Mrs. H. Eugene Phillips and Mrs. William J. McCreight attended the W. C. T. U. state convention in Philadelphia last week.

Miss Hazel Jones, of Pansy, who is a student in Brookville high school, spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Clyde C. Murray, in this place.

Mrs. A. Katzen and son, Silas, returned Friday from Baltimore, Md., where they visited relatives. Silas was in a Baltimore Hospital two weeks for treatment.

Frank Bohren and Dick Reynolds, who saw the "Pirates" win and lose in the two games with Detroit "Tigers" in Pittsburgh Friday and Saturday, went to Detroit to see the games there.

Mr. M. H. Campbell, of Bradenville, Pa., whose wife died October 1st, spent several days of the past week with his daughter, Mrs. J. W. Cunningham, in this place. Mr. Campbell returned home yesterday.

Mrs. E. C. Sensor and daughter, Miss Malissa Sensor, who had been visiting in Unionville and other places in Center county, and at Altoona, Pa., returned home the latter part of last week. Mrs. Sensor had been away almost ten weeks.

John C. Conser and Thomas Green, proprietors of Hotel Imperial, and Will W. Wiley, proprietor of the City Hotel, went to Detroit Sunday to see the championship ball games between the "Pirates" of Pittsburgh and "Tigers" of Detroit.

J. Edgar Shields, who has been employed at Titusville several months, spent part of last week at his home in Reynoldsville and from here went to Cleveland, Ohio, to take up a course of study in a laboratory.

Miss Elsie Ross, who goes to India next month as a missionary, and Mrs. Thomas M. Jewell were in Brookville Friday afternoon attending the monthly meeting of the M. E. Foreign Missionary Society in that place. Miss Ross gave a talk on missions.

G. P. Williams and daughter, Miss Anna Williams, of Sligo, were visitors in town the latter part of last week. Mr. Williams, a P. R. R. engineer who formerly resided in this place, has been on the Sligo branch over two years and this was his first trip to Reynoldsville in two years.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Arnold and two sons, Charles and Alvin, of Clarion, came to Reynoldsville Saturday in their automobile. Alvin remained here over Sunday and Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Alexander accompanied the other members of the Arnold family to DuBois Saturday evening, returning Sunday evening.

Mrs. C. N. McPherson, of Pedro Meguil, Canal Zone, Panama, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Smith, in this place, and other relatives in the county for over three months, will start to-day for New York City and sail from that city to-morrow for Panama. She don't expect to visit in Pennsylvania again until she comes to stay.

Go Into Secluded Valley.

If you are a kicker and see the shadows of failure in everything that is proposed to help the town, for goodness sake go into some secluded valley and kick your own shadow on the clay bank, and give the men who are working to build up the town a chance. One long-faced, hollow-eyed, whining, capping, chronic kicker can do more to keep away business and capital from a town than all the drouths, short crops, chinch bugs and blizzards combined.

Victor's Celebrated Brass Sextette.

Probably no one feature of Victor's Band Concerts has been more warmly received than his Bass Sextette. They have received two and three encores as an almost nightly experience. Their rendering of Donizetti's "Lucia di Lammermoor" is almost the perfection of execution and never fails to enthrall their audiences. At Assembly Hall Wednesday evening, October 27. First number on High School course.

Notice to All Dealers and Traders of Every Kind.

You are hereby forbidden and warned against giving any one credit on my account, as I will pay no bills unless ordered by myself.

D. E. STANFORD.